Week 3: Good Habits

“My dear brothers and sisters, take note of this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry.” – James 1:19

First declaration – _____.

“Which of you, if your son asks for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake? If you, then though you are evil... though you are imperfect know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more your Father in heaven will give good gifts to those who ask him.” – Matthew 7:9-11

“A leader is someone I would follow to a place that I am afraid to go by myself.” – Anonymous

“Because human anger does not produce the righteousness that God desires.” – James 1:20

“In your anger do not sin.” – Ephesians 4:26

“Therefore, get rid of all moral filth and the evil that is so prevalent and humbly accept the word planted in you, which can save you.” – James 1:21

“Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says. Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like someone who looks at his face in a mirror and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like. But whoever looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom... not forgetting what they have heard, but doing it – they will be blessed in what they do.” – James 1:22-25

What you see in your reflection you will eventually see in your children.

Are we validating our words by how we choose to live?

_____ – “the difference between the parents who aren’t worth following and the ones who are.”

At some point our desire to make disciples in our family must supersede the amount of guilt that we feel, because if we are in Christ today than we are no longer under condemnation.

_____ – “giving up something that you love for something that you love more.”
