

Going Through To Get To It

How bad do we want what God has said we can have?

In order for this sermon to be applicable on any level: You and I must quit worrying about what other people think.

“To refuse to forgive someone until they admit they are sorry is to make yourself a prisoner to the very person who has hurt you!!!”

“Be still and know that he is God.” – Psalm 46:10

“All the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and said, ‘We are your own flesh and blood.’ In the past, while Saul was king over us, you were the one who led Israel on their military campaigns. And the LORD said to you, ‘You will shepherd my people Israel, and you will become their ruler.’ When all the elders of Israel had come to King David at Hebron, the king made a compact with them at Hebron before the LORD and they anointed David king over Israel. David was thirty years old when he became king, and he reigned forty years. In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned over all Israel and Judah thirty-three years. The king and his men marched to Jerusalem to attack the Jebusites, who lived there. The Jebusites said to David, ‘You will not get in here; even the blind and the lame can ward you off.’ They thought, ‘David cannot get in here.’ Nevertheless, David captured the fortress of Zion, the City of David. On that day, David said, ‘Anyone who conquers the Jebusites will have to use the water shaft to reach those “lame and blind” who are David’s enemies.’ That is why they say, ‘The “lame and blind” will not enter the palace.’ David then took up residence in the fortress and called it the City of David. He built up the area around it, from the supporting terraces inward. And he became more and more powerful, because the LORD God Almighty was with him.” – Luke 9:54

What are we willing to go through to get where God wants us to be?

“God has not given you a spirit of fear, but, of love, power and a sound mind.” – 2 Timothy 1:7
